

HRC WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

Policy Statement

Hengyuan Refining Company Berhad ("HRC") is committed to the highest standards of integrity, openness and accountability in the conduct of its businesses and operations. HRC aspires to conduct its affairs in an ethical, responsible and transparent manner which are set out in HRC's Code of Conduct and General Business Practices.

In line with the above commitment, the Whistleblower Policy ("Policy") is established to encourage and to facilitate the disclosure of genuine and legitimate Improper Conduct raised by employees of HRC and members of the public of any Improper Conduct within HRC at the earliest opportunity.

Objective of the Policy

To provide an avenue for all employees of HRC and members of the public to disclose any Improper Conduct in accordance with the procedures as provided for under this Policy and to provide protection for employees and members of the public who report such allegations.

Scope of Policy

The Policy is designed to enable employees of HRC and members of the public to raise genuine concerns at a high level which the individual believes shows malpractice or impropriety. Such Improper Conduct includes the following:-

- Financial malpractice or impropriety or fraud;
- Serious non-professional or non-ethical behavior;
- Breach of Confidentiality;
- Misuse of HRC funds or assets;
- Criminal activity;
- Attempts to conceal any of these above; and
- Any other conduct which may cause loss to HRC, or otherwise be detrimental to the interests of its shareholders and the public.

The above list is not exhaustive and includes any act or omissions, which if proven, will constitute an act of misconduct under HRCs' Code of Conduct, General Business Practices or any criminal offence under relevant legislations in force. This Policy is not intended to invalidate the Consequences Management Framework and/or any other disciplinary procedures in place but to provide an avenue for employees and members of the public to disclose Improper Conduct committed or about to be committed.

Procedure in Making a Disclosure

All disclosures are to be made in accordance with the procedures set out in this Policy.

Protection to Whistleblower

A whistleblower will be accorded (to the extent reasonably practicable) with:

- protection of confidentiality of identity; and
- internally will be protected against any adverse and detrimental actions for disclosing any Improper Conduct committed or about to be committed provided that the disclosure is made in good faith based on reasonable grounds.

Such protection is accorded even if the investigation later reveals that the whistleblower is mistaken as to the facts and the rules and procedures involved.

Anonymous whistleblowers will not be entertained. HRC however reserves the right to investigate any anonymous disclosures.

In addition, any disclosure which is found to be frivolous or vexatious will not be entertained.
